WOODS FULLER

• EST. 1887 •

Courtney is originally from Rapid City, South Dakota and joined Woods Fuller in 2022. Courtney obtained her bachelor's degree from Black Hills State University. She earned her juris doctorate from University of South Dakota Knudson School of Law, graduating summa cum laude and with Sterling Honors. While in law school, Courtney served as the president of the Moot Court Board, graduate assistant, student representative on the Academic Affairs and Curriculum Committee, and student liaison for the South Dakota Trial Lawyers Association. Upon graduation, Courtney received the Gavel Award, which is given to the student who is deemed most outstanding by the law school faculty.

Prior to joining Woods Fuller, Courtney clerked for Chief Justice Steven R. Jensen of the South Dakota Supreme Court. In her free time, Courtney enjoys reading and spending time with her husband, Daniel, and their dog, Gracie.
